IEEE Tech-Professional Meeting with Prof. S. N. Singh (IIT-Kanpur)
(August 30, 2016)

The IEEE student branch IIIT Allahabad called a Tech-Professional meeting with Prof. S. N. Singh, (Professor, Department of Electrical Engineering, IIT, Kanpur). The meeting was held in CC-3 building (Room No 5055), IIIT Allahabad at 3:00 PM. The goal of this meeting was to discuss the various benefits of IEEE membership to increase the active IEEE members. The meeting was also focused to motivate all the team members of IEEE Student Branch IIIT-Allahabad and inspire them for active participation in several IEEE activities. Dr. Rajat Kumar Singh (Faculty Counselor, IEEE-SB-IIITA) , Office Bearers and Committee Co-coordinators were present in the meeting.

The meeting began as per schedule with the introductory speech by Mr. Sudhakar Mishra (Secretary, IEEE-SB-IIITA) to honor the distinguished speaker Prof. S. N. Singh with emphasizing his achievements. Subsequently, Mr. Vinod Kumar Jatav (Chairperson, IEEE-SB-IIITA) briefed about the structural hierarchy of the student branch, student branch chapters and recently organized events at IEEE-SB-IIITA. This was followed by a brief introduction about the benefits of IEEE membership and association with the student branch by Mr. Shivam (Chairperson, Publicity Committee). Ms. Apurva Gupta (Chairperson, Membership Committee) detailed about various activities being organized at student branch.

Prof. S. N Singh delivered a motivational talk. It was focused on the benefits of being an IEEE member. Prof. S. N Singh shared his experiences with the team members about the IEEE activities that he witnessed at various colleges; both government as well as private institutions. He stressed on the need to provide benefits to students to create widespread awareness about IEEE. He pointed out that the IEEE is a non-profit organization and serving the society to improve the technical aspects of life and the members are working voluntarily to support the IEEE.

Prof. S. N Singh suggested that one should not overlook the money or the monetary aspects of IEEE and instead focus on the noble causes that it promotes. All the Office Bearers and Coordinators were overwhelmed with the inspirational words of Prof. S. N. Singh. There was also a healthy discussion about the various aspects of hosting IEEE Conference/Congress in future. At the end, Dr. Rajat Kumar Singh presented a memento to Prof. S. N Singh as a token of gratitude for such an inspirational and informative discussion.
